

Are you a homeowner age 62+ living on the West Side of Chicago?

The Rush Older Adult Home Modification Program is designed for older adults to work with community and health professionals, so that they can learn how to gain additional support, with the goal of continuing to live at home, safely.

What's included?

- Work with an occupational therapist and home repair specialist to get a personalized home evaluation with recommendations
- Professional installation of modifications that you choose to add to your home
- Build your confidence by working with professionals
- Services are free to consumers*
